Description

At Dundee Audi. This 2022 Audi Q2 TFSI Technik is a well-maintained vehicle that comes with the peace of mind of being Audi manufacturer approved. Having had only one owner from new, this compact SUV offers a reliable option for those seeking a modern and capable vehicle. It is powered by a 1.0 litre petrol engine, which meets Euro 6 emission standards, ensuring it remains compliant with current environmental regulations. The vehicle is designed with efficiency in mind, offering a fuel economy of 49 mpg, which helps to keep running costs manageable for daily driving. Its low CO2 emissions further contribute to its practical appeal, making it a sensible choice for drivers who want a balance of performance and economy. By combining these efficient engine characteristics with the build quality associated with the Audi brand, this model provides a refined driving experience that stands out in the competitive compact SUV market. Call Dundee Audi to arrange a test drive or personalised video.
